HIS MANSION MINISTRIES WORKGROUP LEADER INFORMATION

We are excited you are leading a His Mansion workgroup this year! Even more, we are glad you are coming to spend time with our His Mansion family. The following information is to help you prepare to visit our community.

WHAT IS A WORKGROUP?

Workgroups are an opportunity for you to participate in what God is doing in the lives of the men and women on The Hill. By working and living alongside our Residents, Servant Leaders, and staff, you will join in the physical, relational, and spiritual work being accomplished at His Mansion.

Your time with us will include working with one of our work crews to maintain our 316 acre property, times of worship and prayer, and three meals a day with our Residents, Servant Leaders, and staff in Griggs Dining Hall. Evening activities include participating in free time and fellowshipping as a group.

WHAT IS A WORKGROUP LEADER?

Our workgroups would not be possible without leaders like you who desire to take part in the life-changing work God is doing at His Mansion Ministries (HMM). Workgroup leaders are asked to familiarize themselves with their role (see below) and adhere to the written guidelines in this packet and the Guest Info Packet. Workgroup leaders are empowered to lead their groups while respecting the responsibility HMM has to Residents, Servant Leaders, staff, and HMM property.

YOUR ROLE

Overall, workgroup leaders:

- Desire to see their group grow as they serve
- Are committed to support the healing of Jesus Christ in HMM's Residents
- Are an integral part of the planning process

Workgroup leaders are specifically expected to:

- Recruit, interview, and approve workgroup members
- Be responsible for their workgroup

- Be knowledgeable of the expectations in this packet and in the Guest Info Packet, and enforce these with their workgroup
- Field questions from their workgroup team, and appeal to the Workgroup Coordinator for needed clarification
- Communicate and enforce all deadlines prior to the trip
- Hold regular workgroup meetings and prayer times (at least once a month)
- Prepare workgroup members, as a team, for the mission experience
- Ensure workgroup members are keeping up with deadlines
- Be responsible for all financial decisions
- Formulate an itinerary for a "free day" (if a free day is desired)
- Determine with your group if they will participate in the workshop.
- Make all travel arrangements to and from HMM (including airline tickets, buses, cars, railway tickets, travel food, etc.)
- Clearly enforce all policies and procedures with their workgroup during the trip
- Support and challenge workgroup members before, during, and after the trip
- Debrief with their workgroup upon their return

GUEST INFO PACKET

You have been provided with a Guest Info Packet. You are responsible to hold each workgroup member accountable to abide by the rules and expectations inside. Please ensure that each workgroup member has received and reviewed this information prior to your arrival. The Guest Info Packet also provides helpful information about what to expect on the HMM campus.

SELECTING WORKGROUP MEMBERS

Due to the nature of our community, it is inappropriate for workgroup leaders to accept workgroup members who are actively struggling with eating disorders, substance abuse, and/or chemical dependency (using illegal drugs, prescription abuse, alcoholism, etc.).

In addition to this, we ask that you select workgroup members who meet the following criteria:

- Following Jesus Christ or open to Christianity
- Respectful
- Willing to take direction

REGISTRATION POLICY

SELECTION APPROVAL

All workgroups who desire to come to His Mansion must meet the following criteria:

- 4. All participants are capable of performing manual labor for 8 hours per day
- 5. All participants are capable of being outside for 8 hours per day

WORK CREW

While at HMM and depending on your skills and preferences, you will choose to work with Men's or Women's Work Crew, Gardens, Kitchen, or Facilities. Your assignments and projects will vary depending on the season, weather, and HMM's needs.

Men's and Women's Work Crew includes the most Resident and Servant Leader interaction and usually involves:

- Men: Throwing and stacking wood, rock wall maintenance, road maintenance, other tasks as needed

Kitchen may or may not include Resident and Servant Leader interaction and usually involves:

- Food prep
- Setting tables
- Dish washing and drying
- Canning/Freezing/Food Processing

Gardens may or may not include Resident and Servant Leader interaction and usually involves:

- Preparing the ground
- Planting
- Weeding
- Harvesting

Facilities rarely has Resident or Servant Leader interaction and usually involves:

- Remodeling: such as demo of an old kitchen or bathroom, hanging new drywall, laying tile flooring, painting, etc.

Workgroups will meet with work crew supervisors directly after breakfast and lunch each day. Please be dressed and fully prepared for work prior to breakfast and lunch. Closed-toe shoes must be worn during work crew times.

Please refrain from using electronics during work, except with permission from your work crew supervisor.

If any safety concerns arise during your time with us, please address them with your work crew supervisor.

FREE DAY

If you choose, Thursday will be a "free day" for your workgroup to enjoy the surrounding area. Plans for the day must be ready prior to your arrival. This includes:

• Time of departure and return

Destination

• Transportation (HMM cannot provide transportation)

Workshop

If you choose, your workgroup may participate in a Listening Group Tuesday afternoon. A Listening Group consists only of our visitors and whichever staff is leading the workshop. It does not include Residents or Servant Leaders. A Listening Group will help your members learn how to sit with and listen to someone who is sharing a piece of their life story. Instructions and a model will be given, and volunteers from your group will be given the opportunity to share while the other group members practice listening and responding.
